Dear Mr. Secretary General,

I am pleased to confirm that Jagannath International Management School (JIMS), Vasant Kunj, New Delhi supports the Ten Principles of the UN Global Compact with respect to Human Rights, Labour, Environment and Anti-corruption. With respect to this commitment, we express our intent to support the UN Global Compact in advancing these principles and hereby make clear a statement of this commitment to our stakeholders and general public. We give below the ways in which our institution has supported and participated in the achievement of the UN SDGs by way of our support for the UNGC's Ten Principles :

1. Incorporating SDGs in the research programmes - The institute has institutionalized the mechanism of focusing its faculty and under-graduates students' research projects on SDGs. The institution has conducted recently research project sponsored by National Human Rights Commission (NHRC), New Delhi on Vulnerability, Legal Protection and Work Conditions of Domestic Workers in the slums of the NCT of Delhi. Another project on Knowledge, Attitude and Practice of WASH (Water, Sanitation & Hygiene) in the slums of NCT of Delhi sponsored by Indian Council for Social Science Research (ICSSR), New Delhi is currently being undertaken towards this end. Two of our faculty members have published their research in the form of a paper and a chapter on Green Marketing and Sustainable Supply Chains. Two more have published a paper on the use of Community Radio in enhancing Mathematical skills of community members in an international journal.
2. Seminars/Conferences – The institute has laid special emphasis on not only communicating awareness of the SDGs but also involved experts from the industry and academia to debate and discuss the ways and means of achieving the UN SDGs. The Department of Media and Communication Studies organised in 2019 a National Conference on Communicating Sustainable Development Goals with the support of the Indian Council of Social Science Research (ICSSR), New Delhi and GCNI, New Delhi. The Department of Management Studies organised the 14th National Conference on Sustainable Development: People, Planet and Partnership in 2019, the proceeding of which are available in print having been published in book form. Interestingly enough the published proceeding includes research articles by the students on the institute of sustainable development.

3. Incorporation into Academia Curriculum – The teaching of sustainable development has been incorporated into the academic curricula by way of courses on environment studies and environment communication. Besides the outbreak of the pandemic in 2020 was met with an immediate response in terms of a switch over from offline to online teaching learning on e-platforms. Special focus in the online teaching learning process was laid on the physical and mental health issues of the students by way of organising series of online lectures by reputed Physicians and Psychologists from accredited health organizations in the country.
4. Communicating Sustainable Development Goals through CR 90.4 MHz : JIMS Vasant Kunj Community Radio 90.4 MHz broadcast a number of programmes concerning SDGs in the years under review. These are
 - a. Radio Programmes on
 - Goal 1: No Poverty
 - Goal 2: Zero Hunger
 - Goal 3: Good Health and Well-being
 - Goal 4: Quality Education
 - Goal 5: Gender Equality
 - Goal 6: Clean Water and Sanitation
 - Goal 10: Reduced Inequality
 - b) Special Radio Programme on COVID-19
 - Mission Corona in association with Community Radio association sponsored by UNICEF Delhi from June to October, 2020.
 - “Mask nahi to tokenge corona ko rokenge” (If you don’t wear a mask we will remind you to wear it). sponsored by Seeking Modern Applications for Real Transformation (SMART), non-government organization in collaboration by Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation (BMGF) from September to December, 2020
 - One Hour In-House Programme titled “Baat Corona Ki” aired from May, 2020 till date.
 - c) Special Radio Programme on Girl Child Education

- Har Kadam Beti Ke Sang" (To walk every step with your daughter) in association with Community Radio Association sponsored by Room to Read from November to December, 2020
5. Achieving SDGs through Community Engagement – The Rotaract Club of Jagannath International Management College (JIMS) Vasant Kunj along with JIMS Eco Club, our NSS Unit and Unnat Bharat Abhiyan teams worked in the community for the achievement of SDGs by not only raising awareness but also undertaking a number of community projects. The college adopted 5 villages in its vicinity to carry out community radio projects in collaboration with the Government of India.

We recognize finally that a key requirement for participation in the UN Global Compact is the submission of a Communication on Engagement (COE) that describes our efforts to support the implementation of the Ten Principles of UNGC. As we support these principles we unequivocally stand committed to report the progress made on achieving the SDGs every 2 years as a part of the COE policy.

Sub: Communication on Engagement (COE)

Dear Sir,

On behalf of my institution, Jagannath International Management School (JIMS), Vasant Kunj, New Delhi which has been admitted recently to the membership of the UN Global Compact, I would like to put on record here below the areas in which the institution has been and will be contributing to the noble cause of the attainment of the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), in line with our Letter of Commitment to the ten principles of Un Global Compact:

- 1) Incorporating SDGs in the Research Programme: The institution is conducting research on the achievement of Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) at the local/ community level with a view to highlighting the differential in the achievements at the National, Regional and Local levels. The uniqueness of this research programme will be the participation of the undergraduate students in both data collection and analysis. About 240 students will be participating in this research programme.
- 2) Seminars/Conferences: The institution will be organizing seminars and conferences on Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) to create awareness not just about the imperative need for achieving Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) but also for stimulating participation in this global effort among faculty and students across the higher educational institutional space in the National Capital Region of Delhi. The institution is in the process of organizing on March 13, 2019 at India International Centre, New Delhi, India, a National Conference on Communicating Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) with the support of the Indian Council of Social Science Research (ICSSR), New Delhi and the support of GCNI, New Delhi.
- 3) Incorporation into Academic Curriculum: As a part of the academic curriculum at the undergraduate degree level, the institute teaches courses on Environment Studies and Environment Communication, wherein students are imparted knowledge and given field exposure on ecological conservation.

Thanking you,

Sincerely,

25.	Stationary drive	25/01/2020	Rotaract Club of JIMS Vasant Kunj organized a Stationary Drive for the underprivileged children on 25th January in Andrews Ganj Slums. Each child was provided with notebooks, pencil pouches, scales, pencils, erasers and crayons by the members of the drive. Later, a sketching competition was hosted which required the children to draw the Flag of India in order to make them realize the importance of and value of the TRICOLOR and REPUBLIC DAY. It gives an immense pleasure whenever the Rotaractors visit the Andrews Ganj Slum because as soon as they step in, those little kids come out of their residents with a wide smile and they will hug the Rotaractors with full of excitement. The Rotaractors will also forget their stress after they see those little kids hugging them with full excitement. And firstly, all the kids were asked to draw an Indian Flag. All the children enthusiastically participated in the competition. And the rotaractors explained to them about the importance of those three colours. And then they were asked to draw whatever they like or want to do in their life. Their innovations and creativity was mind blowing. The way they presented their
