(57) Abstract :
The present invention is related to the field computer science and engineering. Smart curtains allow-to save time and makes the home a smart one. It helps to create a smart home with its innovative way in opening and closing of curtains upon commands from humans. This proposal provides the implementation of automatic opening and closure of window curtains in home/offices using electronic and telecommunication systems. The allowable input is the voice command via Alexa that proceeds with the operation of smart curtains upon the comfort of the user. The window curtains are built with Arduino microcontroller module that helps in opening and closure operations. The Arduino connected with amazon Alexa device gets the input signal via humans regarding the opening and closure of window curtains. The embedding of Alexa unit helps in controlling the smart curtains even the user is in remote locations.

Digital music

5 January, 2021

The digitalisation of the music industry has been massively disruptive, to say the least. From the studio mixing desk to the world of downloads, nothing has caused more friction and more opportunity. Indeed, access to music has never been easier nor has the ability for musicians to reach an audience. Writing in the International Journal of Indian Culture and Business Management, researchers in India discuss the dismantling of long-standing practices to make way for innovation in terms of Schumpeter's "creative destruction" [...]

Cleaning up without greenwashing

18 February, 2022

In what way is social media affecting the "green" behaviour of people in India? Research published in the International Journal of Indian Culture and Business Management looks to answer that question with respect to motivational factors revealed by an analysis of social media and attitudes to eco-friendly consumer choices balanced against costs. Meesha Gupta and Asif Ali Syed of the Faculty of Management Studies and Research at the Aligarh Muslim University in Aligarh, Uttar Pradesh, collected data from 536 respondents who use social media and are also inclined towards eco-friendly products as opposed to less environmentally benign purchases. The team used exploratory factor analysis and structural equation modelling techniques to analyse the data [...]

Plagiarism means 'wrongful appropriation' or 'close imitation' of an author's 'language, thoughts, ideas or expressions'. This can happen without intention. There are various guidelines that universities prescribe for citation of work, whenever you are referring to someone else's work or using a definition. Making sure that you have the right citation and format style is essential to save your dissertation from getting plagiarized.

Do not be stopped in your journey of creating a dissertation because of plagiarized content, which can also lead to rejection. Instead, get the help of a service for ensuring the authenticity of your work, as well as a positive response from peers and professors. Proving that your work is original and defending it is a crucial step in the process of evaluation of your work. This is because your professors would be using the latest tools for checking the originality of work. Hence, you must not leave any stone unturned to make sure that you don't falter at the last stage.

ABOUT THE JOURNAL

Management is necessary for the successful running of organizations, irrespective of the type, form, size, and nature. The nature and complexity of management varies from organization to organization. Management is growing as a discipline by borrowing principles, concepts, and constructs from several other disciplines. It is also growing by accepting / adopting well accepted and time tested practices.

The problems and prospects in business and industry give rise to a lot of exploratory, empirical and applied research in the areas related to management. A growing discipline like Management requires fast and firm medium for dissemination of knowledge generated from and out of research and practice. A journal is one such print medium which ensures the spread of knowledge on a sustainable and long lasting basis.

Having recognized this need, the Management of Gokaraju Rangaraju Institute of Engineering and Technology (GRIET), Hyderabad, has aptly decided to start a Management journal. Their belief in the concept, "management today is necessary for a better tomorrow", has resulted in naming the journal as "Management Today" with a tagline "for a better tomorrow".

Management Today is an international journal of management studies. It provides academicians, researchers, and managers a common platform to come together to exchange practical experiences, research findings, and innovative ideas in the area of management. It aims at creating a fund of knowledge in the area of management by collecting, publishing and preserving quality research articles.

Management Today (An International Journal of Management Studies) is a peer reviewed open access journal published once in three months, both in print (ISSN: 2230-9764) and online (ISSN: 2348-3989).

All the papers are indexed by CrossRef, International Society Indexing (ISI) and International Innovative Journal Impact Factor (IJIF) to facilitate easy reference. Impact Factor of the Journal, as calculated by ISI for 2016 is 1.532.

The Journal does not charge any money for publication.

The Journal has been included by University Grants Commission, New Delhi, in the list of the Journals approved for calculation of Academic Performance Indicator (API).
